Customize Your Coaching Plan

Every situation is different. You know your business, your style, and what you want to accomplish. With your input, we can customize a coaching package to your specific needs.

Customize the location of your Coaching Sessions

We work with a national client base; so much of our work is done by phone. However if you live/ work locally we can meet in person. What works best for you to be productive? We can meet at your location, my office, or Starbucks (for that matter).

Quick Calls

Some things can't wait until our next appointment. You've got decisions to make, tasks to implement, and questions that come up along the way. I am available for calls in-between appointments, just when you need it.

Email Support

When non urgent questions come up, you can email me for thoughts and feed back. This is handy when you've got a small question, or want me to review a document for you.

Research

We will research topics (ideas) and seek out contacts on your behalf. You dictate the direction of the inquiries. We will follow up via phone, email or both with the results. You will be amazed how we can utilize this time to your benefit.

Goal Tracking by Fax or Email

Measurable goals are crucial to success. Tracking is needed to keep us on task and on track. You will have a tracking form you can use. We will receive your submissions and reply with acknowledgements and comments between sessions.

An initial 5 hour pre-paid commitment is required. You may take up to 6 months to utilize the pre-paid time. As always the 100% Satisfaction Guarantee applies. Investment per Hour $175.
